FUNDRAISING GUIDE

We are so excited that you've decided to serve at Camp Celebrate this year! We know that the financial commitment of coming to camp can feel challenging, so we've created this document to help you brainstorm creative ways to raise financial support for your mission trip.

Below are some ideas and methods that past short-term missionaries have successfully used to fundraise for Camp Celebrate. If you're struggling at any point, please don't hesitate to reach out for guidance. Scholarships are also available to assist with your camp fees.

FUNDRAISING

There are several ways to fundraise for your camp fees, and one of the most effective methods we've found is using an online platform. Websites like GoFundMe or SupportNow make it easy to share your story and reach out to friends and family.

The first step is to create a fundraiser on one of these websites. Below, we've provided a sample text you can use or edit to get started. Once your fundraiser is set up, we recommend sending a personalized email to friends and family who may want to support you. Sharing your fundraiser on social media can also be highly effective, as you never know who might be willing to help.

SAMPLE FUNDRAISER DESCRIPTION:

This summer I have the opportunity to serve at a camp designed for individuals and families impacted by disability. I am so excited to be part of this incredible mission, where campers are loved, celebrated, and encouraged for exactly who they are. I am raising financial support to help cover my camp fees so I can volunteer and make a difference in the lives of these amazing campers. Please consider donating through the link below. Thank you so much for your support!

CHURCH DONATIONS

Another option for covering camp fees is asking your church for support. Many past volunteers have had their church fully cover their camp fees or contribute a scholarship toward them. We recommend meeting with your pastor, sharing about the mission of Camp Celebrate, and asking if the church could sponsor you as a short-term missionary. Often, churches can allocate sponsorship funds from their missions or outreach budget.

WORKING FOR YOUR WEEK OF SERVICE

Offer extra babysitting, mow a neighbor's lawn, or help around the house. People are often excited to be a part of helping send volunteers to camp — especially when you're helping them with a job.

ASK YOUR EMPLOYER

Some employers will sponsor you to serve on a mission trip. It's worth asking!

SCHOLARSHIPS

If you are in need of additional support, you can apply for a scholarship through Luke 14 Ministries. For further questions about the application process, email Katie for assistance.
